Title(Diploma)	BUY OR SELL.COM
Description	According to Bill Gates it is mandatory for all the people to take the help of Information Technology to increase and to promote their business. Buy OR Sell.COM is a web based application through this user will sell and purchase products online. Buy or Sell.Com is committed to promote safe and secure trading environment. Hence our approach is to use Information Technology to make shopping easier and more convenient. .
Title(BCA)	Online Examination System
Description	This project Online Examination and Evaluation System for Single and Multi-level Test is one of the important components of Online Education; it not only reflects the justification & objectivity of examination but also releases the workload of lecturers, which is accepted widely by organizations. This proposed system is based completely on web application which achieves higher accuracy towards multi-level tests, in which authentication of individuals is carried out. Admin has an authority on question banks in database whereas user takes single or multi-level exam and their result will be automatically generated by this system.
Title (M.Sc Cs)	Kisan MItra
Description	In today's rapid changing world of internet we focused on the people especially from the rural areas .The main Aim behind this is that the people in rural areas are far away from internet technology. So, in order to get all the information about agriculture collectively, we have developed a Website and an Application which will help the farmer in many ways.
